Vacation Bible School Directors,

Do you need a missionary speaker for your VBS? Are you including missions education in your VBS program? Karin Foster is a missionary that serves with On To Victory, Inc. and is currently working with the Tsonga-Shagaan people group in South Africa. You can find out more about her work at www.ontovictory.org. She would love to come to your VBS and share about the work being done with children in South Africa. Presentation can include this work or general missions education. Karin can be contacted at 270.202.8885 or karinfoster@bellsouth.net.

From our Director of Missions

June and July are very busy months in the church! However, these two months are also two of the best months evangelistically as well. As you prepare for the summer, remember to pray for boldness during VBS, Camp, and other activities that God would increase the harvest of those who know HIM!

As we move into the summer, let us NOT take a vacation from sharing the gospel. One idea for sharing the gospel is by using the new Block Party Trailer. Call Amy to schedule the trailer; dates are going fast!

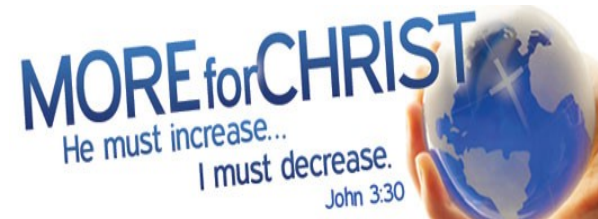

As I am finishing writing this, I have had a great day that began in a prayer time with 9 pastors from our association; last night I was blessed to be with 6 of our bi-vocational pastors for a time of prayer. Let me say how blessed I feel to be part of the Warren Association where the called men of God can come together in love and unity to pray and lift up His name.

In His Name,
Jeff Crabtree

This year marks the 20th anniversary of Super Saturday, the premier training event for Kentucky Baptists. As it has for two decades, this year's events will provide a broad range of training for virtually every staff member and volunteer in your church. We hope that you can join us as we build on 20 years of practical training, preparing for the future and celebrating what we can accomplish when we come together to teach, learn and renew our passion for the work God has called us to do. At the conclusion of each event, we will gather to give thanks for our time together, eat a little cake, give away a few door prizes and CELEBRATE Super Saturday's 20th Anniversary! We hope you'll join us! For more information, go to www.kybaptist.org or call the Association office.
